10 § 2. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 620-b to read as 11 follows:

12 § 620-b. Credit against separate tax on inheritance income. A resident 13 shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by section six hundred 14 four of this article in the amount of the estate tax imposed by article 15 twenty-six of this chapter or any estate or inheritance tax imposed by 16 another state of the United States, a political subdivision of such 17 state, or the District of Columbia, upon any inheritance income, as such 18 term is defined in such section, received by such resident in a taxable 19 year. Such resident may elect to calculate the amount of such credit in 20 accordance with either subsection (a) or subsection (b) of this section.

21 (a) The amount of credit allowed pursuant to this section may be 22 calculated by multiplying the total amount of estate or inheritance tax 23 imposed by this state, another state of the United States, a political 24 subdivision of such state, or the District of Columbia on the estate 25 from which such resident has received inheritance income by a fraction, 26 the numerator of which is the amount of inheritance income received by 27 such resident from such estate and the denominator of which is the total 28 value of such estate after the federal estate tax has been paid but 29 before the estate tax of this state, or any estate or inheritance tax 30 imposed by another state of the United States, a political subdivision 31 of such state, or the District of Columbia, has been paid. In order to 32 calculate such credit in accordance with this subsection, such resident 33 must know the total amount of estate or inheritance tax imposed on such 34 estate by this state, another state of the United States, a political 35 subdivision of such state, or the District of Columbia and the total 36 value of such estate after the federal estate tax has been paid but 37 before the estate or inheritance tax of this state, another state of the 38 United States, a political subdivision of such state, or the District of 39 Columbia, has been paid.

40 (b) The amount of credit allowed pursuant to this section may be 41 calculated as equal to the amount of estate tax or inheritance tax of 42 this state, another state of the United States, a political subdivision 43 of such state, or the District of Columbia, that would be imposed on the 44 estate from which such resident receives inheritance income as if such 45 inheritance income were equal to the total value of such estate.

46 § 3. The tax law is amended by adding two new sections 624-a and 624-b 47 to read as follows:

Such individual may elect to calculate the amount of such credit in accordance with either subsection (a) or subsection (b) of this section.

(a) The amount of credit allowed pursuant to this section may be calculated by multiplying the total amount of estate or inheritance tax imposed by this state, another state of the United States, a political subdivision of such state, or the District of Columbia on the estate from which such individual has received inheritance income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount of inheritance income received by such individual from such estate and the denominator of which is the total value of such estate after the federal estate tax has been paid but before the estate tax of this state, or any estate or inheritance tax imposed by another state of the United States, a political subdivision of such state, or the District of Columbia, has been paid.
